

Big NUT in GWEC?

You read that right BIG NUT is coming to the Greasy Wombats Epic Championship as a Platinum level sponsor.

The official milk of GWEC that you will see all of the athletes drinking on gameday because they are contractually obligated to is "Silk Almond Milk".

That's right GWEC brought in the staple of BIG NUT. A giant nut, in the NUT based beverage industry. When you think big nut its quite simple you think Silk.

7 out of 10 milk drinkers prefer Silk Almond Milk. Take that....Milk.

Unlikely Heroes

On a cold brisk night on December 31st, 2025 approximately 8:32 pm the GWEC HQ was held under siege by officials from the dreaded FAA (Federal Aviation Agency). I was amongst other GWEC staffers who will remain nameless to protect their precious identities.

Antonio, our kinky little receptionist heard a loud thud. He thought nothing off it and continued to diglently work on his manifesto, "Antonio, Antonio Matters so should you", . THUD THUD THUD. (Antonio only agreed to comment if we gave a plug for his upcoming manifesto) Concerned, he stood up from his front desk and KABOOM comes through the FAA. Scared at the site of the despicable FAA poor antonio urinated his pants and passed out, that's where Antonio's story ends and Stacieah's

Stacieah our head analytics officer was on her way to the breakroom to grab coffee to finish the worknight strong and then proceed to the GWEC New Year's Party at little caesars, "pizza pizza". Then she was sideswaped and smothered to the ground by the FAA. The FAA proceeded to zip tied her hands behind her back demanding that she cough's up the electrolytes at once. Little did the FAA know that Stacieah heard the Thuds as well. Something so quite unusual it struck a nerve, so she signaled the Wombat Singal and called in GWEC's unsung heroes, "The Greasy Wombats".

Before the FAA could cause anymore harm the Greasy Wombats came in full force and detained the FAA and alerted the local authorities.

Thanks to the fast actions and swift thinking Stacieah and the Greasy Wombats saved GWEC and saved the staff and more importantly the New Year's Eve Party at Little Caesar's.

You're probably wondering, "Glizz, why were you working on New Years at 8:32 pm on New Year's Eve, shouldn't you be with your family?"

My reply, GWEC is my Family.

The Butter Snatching Bandit

It's a bird, no it's a plane . No it's Dover Dipsy Doodles staff stealing butter from the PA Farm Show.

Rebekah Leiws (Related to Chigby Lewis), a trusty blacksmith for the franchise was arrested last week for snatching unthinkable amounts of butter from the Land O' Lakes facility in Carlisle, PA.

She was caught red handed, hopping out of the bed of her truck, on her way to get more unthinkable amounts of butter. On her way back to her secret underground entrance she spent months digging a random patrol car happened to see the activity per police reports. She was arrested promptly.

When we asked Rebekah why she did it, she replied, "Butter is love, butter is life.

Lewis was sentenced to 82 hours community service. She is currently being a chumer on a at the Land O' Lakes facilities.

Reese's Pieces, I Don't Know Who John Cleese Is?

Left: Twin Sister Cave Dwellers

That's how ice rink's are made? The more you know.

Who was John Cleese.

Who is John Cleese.

Am I John Cleese.

Are you John Cleese. You wouldn't know or would you not know that you do know?

There was a recent discover at GWEC HQ. Yes we know. A busy few days over at HQ. Its conveniently located near little caesars, pizza pizza.

"Unionized child labor""

Stragetically we leased property for a our HQ next to a CAVE we OWN. That right GWEC and its share holders own a full blown cave, that's right a real cave.

This cave, the cave of fortitude is where we farm the Ice we use for all GWEC facilites. Its also where we actually keep the spare electrolytes, I bet the FAA wish they knew that before they busted the doors over at HQ.

The cave was actually dug up, loaded on a tractor trailer and moved from Muncie, Indiana. Blue Veiner, our comissoner insisted this is the ice we need to play fanasty hockey, on.

With the cave, uknowlingly creatures came along.

Months, years went by before we tapped into the secret cordinum ice reserves. With one swing on the pick axe from our unionized child labor force the cave dwellers were disvoered.

We are currently holding them captive until studies can be completed. The scientist for the job, Milky Way unfortunatly worked for the FAA.

Please stay tuned for more updated of the cave dwellers. The GWEC facilites need that cordinum ice, we may have to reach a deal with the cave dwellers

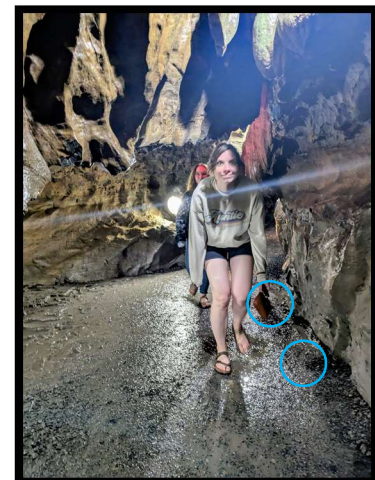

Enoy the photos we have of them.

That's all for now, I have to pee.
